

Summer School of Economics 2014

The Institute of Economic Sciences is organizing, in period of 14th to 18th July 17th annual Summer School of Economics titled “How to make Western Balkan Tigers? Lessons from Economic Theory and Practice”.

Summer School is designed for students of economics and other related social sciences (law, political sciences, organisational sciences, sociology) who are under 30 years of age. Participation in the school is free of charge for all students. Meals and accommodation fees (for students who are not from Belgrade) are also covered. Further information regarding the Summer School of Economics and the process of selection are attached in this mail.

The students will have the opportunity to attend lectures given by professors from the prestigious world and local universities. Since the Summer School of Economics brings together students from the entire region of the Western Balkan, they also have chance to meet their colleagues from different countries and universities, and establish friendships and networks that will be important in their future careers.
