

COMPANY: The Right Street

INTERNSHIP TITLE: Project & Communication Intern

INTERNSHIP LOCATION: Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina

INTERNSHIP TYPE: Part-time

WORKPLACE TYPE: Hybrid

ABOUT US

The Right Street is a full-service digital marketing, communication, advocacy, and advertising agency headquartered in Brussels, Belgium, with additional production offices in Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and Belgrade, Serbia.

Our team of 30 professionals works across a wide range of services, including branding, social media and PR, newsletters and messaging, advertising, SEO, design, video, copywriting, websites and apps, software implementation, email and hosting, management solutions, and integrated campaign development.

INTERNSHIP OVERVIEW

The Right Street is looking for a part-time, hybrid Project & Communication Intern to join our team in Mostar.

As an intern, you will gain hands-on experience in project management, social media, analytics, research, and client communications while supporting our teams with ongoing projects and day-to-day activities. You will work in a dynamic, international environment where you will have the opportunity to learn how a digital agency operates and how different services come together to deliver projects for clients.

This internship is ideal for a curious, motivated student who enjoys researching topics, following current affairs and social media trends, and turning information into clear, useful insights. An interest in EU affairs and policies is particularly welcome, as most of our projects are connected to the EU context.

You will work closely with experienced team members who will support you throughout the internship and help you develop practical skills in project coordination, digital communications, analytics, research, and agency workflows.

Please note that this internship opportunity is primarily aimed at students based in Mostar and/or the Herzegovina region.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Conduct research on various EU-related topics and policies, and help turn complex information into clear and concise insights;
- Monitor social media channels and online discussions to identify relevant news and trends;
- Assist with the preparation of regular analytics reports and briefings for client accounts by organising, processing, and quality-checking data before it is included in client-facing materials;
- Use AI-powered tools to monitor online conversations, and help analyse collected data and turn it into relevant insights for client accounts;
- Assist with audience and stakeholder research for projects and campaigns;
- Support project coordination and day-to-day team activities, including administrative and organisational tasks that help keep projects and workflows running smoothly.

REQUIREMENTS

- Currently enrolled in a university programme in marketing, communications, business, management, economics, political science, international relations, or a related field;
- Strong communication, organisational, and presentation skills;
- Curiosity and willingness to learn and develop new skills;
- Good analytical skills, with the ability to understand, summarise, and prioritise information;
- An interest in EU affairs, policies, and current events is a plus;
- Familiarity with collaboration tools and Google Workspace is a plus;
- Strong written and spoken English skills are a must;
- Previous professional experience is not required.

WHAT WE OFFER

- A paid internship;
- Flexible internship arrangements, with the possibility to do the internship from the office or remotely;
- A dedicated mentor and a supportive team to guide you throughout the internship;
- The opportunity to gain practical experience in an international, fast-paced environment with exposure to the EU context;
- The opportunity to learn how projects, clients, and different agency services come together in practice.

If you are a student who is eager to learn, contribute, and gain practical experience in a dynamic international agency, we would love to hear from you.
